[Verse 1]

G

As I got on a city bus and found a vacant seat,

G

I thought I saw my future bride walking up the street,

G

I shouted to the driver, hey conductor, you must

G

Slow down, I think I see her. Please let me off this bus.

[Chorus]

G

Nadine, honey is that you?

C7

G

Oh, Nadine, honey, is that you?

D7

Seem like every time I see you darling

C7

G

you got something else to do.

[Verse 2]

G

I saw her from the corner when she turned and doubled back,

G

And started walkin' toward a coffee colored Cadillac.

G

I was pushin through the crowd tryin' to get to where she's at.

G

And I was campaign shouting like a southern diplomat.

[Chorus]

G

Nadine, honey is that you?

C7

G

Oh, Nadine, honey, where are you?

D7

Seem like every time I catch up with you

C7

G

you up to something new

[Verse 3]

G

Downtown searching for her, looking all around.

G

Saw her getting in a yellow cab heading uptown.

G

I caught a loaded taxi, paid up everybody's tab.

G

Flipped a hundred dollar bill and told him catch that yellow cab.

[Chorus]

G

Nadine, honey is that you?

C7

G

Oh, Nadine, honey, where are you?

D7

Seem like every time I catch up with you

C7

G

you up to something new

[Verse 4]

G

She moves around like a wayward summer breeze,

G

Go, driver, go, go on, catch her for me please.

G

Moving through the traffic like a mounted cavalier.

G

Leaning out the taxi window, trying to make her hear.

[Chorus]

G

Nadine, honey is that you?

C7

G

Oh, Nadine, honey, is that you?

D7

Seem like every time I see you darling

C7

G

you up to something new
