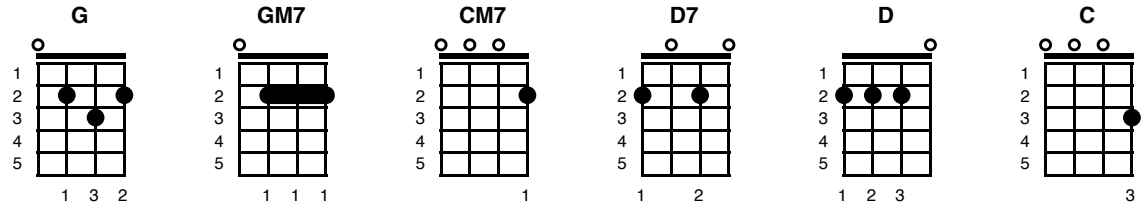
Everybody's Leaving Town

Key of G

Danny O'Keefe, 1972



Intro
[G] [G] [G] [G]

Verse 1
[GM7]Everybody's gone away,
said they're moving to L.[CM7]A.
There ain't a soul I know a-[D7]round,
everybody's leaving [G]town.
[G]Some caught a freight some caught a plane,
find the sunshine, leave the [CM7]rain.
They say this town'll waste your [D7]mind.
Must be right, it's wasting [G]mine.

Chorus
[G]Some got to win some got to [CM7]lose,
[D]good time Charlie's got the [G]blues.

Verse 2
[GM7]My old heart keeps telling me
"you ain't no kid at thirty-[CM7]three."
[C]Play around you [G]lose your [D7]wife,
you play too long you lose your [G]life.
[G]I got my pills to ease the pain,
can't find a thing to ease the [CM7]rain.
Sometimes I'd like to try and settle [D7]down,
but everybody's leaving [G]town.

Chorus
[G]Some got to win some got to [CM7]lose,
[D]good time Charlie's got the [G]blues.
