

Blue Car

Greg Brown [2000]

[D]I'm driving my blue car [G]baby
Down from the mountain so [D]high
I'm driving my [G]blue car baby
Down from the mountain so [D]high
I'm driving my [A]blue car baby
Coming [D]down gonna [A]say [D]goodbye

[D]The sunrise is a [G]miracle
But it can't hold a candle to [D]you
The [G]sunrise is a miracle
But it can't hold a candle to [D]you
Do you [A]remember them rides in my blue car
Back when it was [D]brand new

[D]Well it's a good old [G]car
But the clutch is a [A]little [D]loose
And the [G]brakes are screaming
A song called "what's the [D]use?"
[A]But it's good for one more trip
One more trip to [D]you

[D]The lightning's meant to strike
[G]The tall pine [D]trees
And the birds [G]are meant to cry
And wheel in the [D]breeze
Ah, but [A]some things baby
I guess they just ain't meant [D]to be

[D]When i get back up on the [G]mountain
I'll close my door against the [D]wind
When i get [G]back up on the mountain
I'll close my door against the [D]wind
I'll park my [A]old blue car
I may fall down the mountain
But i will never fall in love [D]again
