I've [C] sung this song, but I'll [G] sing it again,
of the [C] place that I lived on the [G] wild windy plains, in the [C] month called [C7] April, the [F] county called Gray, and [G] here's what all of the [G7] people there say

[C] "So long, it's been good to know yuh, [G] so long, it's been good to know [C] yuh, so [C7] long, it's [F] been good to know yuh, this [C] dusty old dust is a-[G]-gettin' my home, and I've [G7] got to be driftin' [C] along."

A [C] dust storm hit, an' it [G] hit like thunder, it [C] dusted us over, an' it [G] covered us under,
[C] blocked out the [C7] traffic an' [F] blocked out the sun, [G] straight for home all the [G7] people did [C] run, singin'

Chorus

We [C] talked of the end of the [G] world, and then, we'd [C] sing a song an' then [G] sing it again.
We'd [C] sit for an [C7] hour an' [F] not say a word, and [G] then these [G7] words would be [C] heard

Chorus
