The Frozen Man: James Taylor

D   Dsus4   G   Dsus2   A   Bm   E7
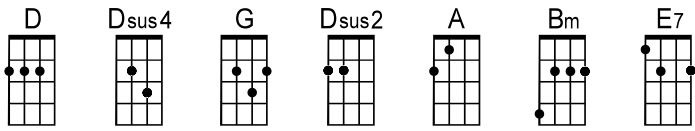

(Asus is shown as Dsus2) Intro:D Dsus4 D (repeat) A
[Verse 1]
D   G   Asus   A   A
Last thing I remember is the freezing cold,
D   G   D   A D   D
Water reaching up just to swallow me whole.
D   G   Asus   A   A
Ice in the rigging and the howling wind,
D   G   D   A   D   D
Shock to my body as we tumbled in.
    Bm   A   G   D   A
My brothers and the others are lost at sea, I alone have returned to tell thee
G   D   E7   A   A
Hidden in ice for a century, to walk the world again.
A   G   Asus A   D
Lord have mercy on the fro   zen man!

 [Verse 2]
D   G   Asus   A   A
Next words   that were   spoken to me,
D   G   D   A   D   D
Nurse asked me what my name might be
D   G   Asus   A   A
She was all in white at the foot of my bed.
        D   G   D   A   D   D
I said angel of mercy I'm alive or am I dead?
Bm   A   G   D
My name is William James McPhee, I was born in eighteen forty-three
G   D   E7   A   A
Raised in Liverpool by the sea, but that ain't who I am.
A   G   Asus A   D
Lord have mercy on the fro   zen man!

 [Bridge]
  G   C   G A   G   C   A   D   D
It took a lot of money to start my heart, to peg my leg and buy my eye.
    G   C   G A   G   Asus   A
The newspapers call me state of the art, and the children, when they see me, cry.

[Verse 3]
```
D               G            Asus        A    A
I thought it'd be nice just to visit my grave,
D               G            D   A     D     D
See what kind of tombstone I    might have.
D                     G              Asus        A         A
Saw my wife and my daughter and it seemed so strange
D           G                     D        A  D   D
Both of them dead and gone from extreme old age
```

 [Verse 4]
```
D    G          Asus     A      A
When I die make sure I'm gone.
D              G       D  A         D     D
Don't leave em' nothing       to  work on.
D                 G            Asus         A  A
You can raise your arm, you can wiggle your hand,   (Not like myself!)
            D            G          D   A  D        D
And you can wave good-bye to the fro   zen man
 Bm                   A               G                   D
I know what it means to freeze to death, to lose a little life with every breath
G                 D             E7          A      A
To say good-bye to life on earth, to come around again
A          G           Asus  A    D
Lord have mercy on the fro     zen man!
A          G           Asus  A    D
Lord have mercy on the fro     zen man!
```
