

Colorado Folly: The Fire Song

Mary Jane Ford 2002

Instrumental Intro:

[D] / [D] / [G] [D] [A7] [D]

Verse 1:

[D] Here's the sad story of [A7] Terry Lynn Barton,
who was the cause of a [D] forest fire startin'.

[G] A U. S. Forest service [D] emplo-y-ee, who [G] could not see the [D] forest because of [A7] the [D] trees.

Verse 2:

[D] She started a blaze with her [A7] own vengeful hand, although in that area [D] campfires were banned.

[G] She was the enforcer of the [D] ban on camp fires, but [G] that didn't [D] stop her from building [A7] her [D] pyre.

Instrumental break:

[D] / [D] / [G] [D] [A7] [D]

Verse 3:

[D] At the start of the federal [A7] investigation,
she said she discovered the [D] conflagration,
And the [G] license number of a [D] suspicious van that [G] most likely [D] carried the guilty, [A7] who [D] ran.

Verse 4:

[D] When questioned, she faltered and [A7] told a new story,
of receiving a letter, so [D] inflammatory,
From [G] her worthless husband who [D] caused her much woe.
She [G] burned just one [D] letter from that so-[A7] and-[D] so.

Instrumental break:

[D] / [D] / [G] [D] [A7] [D]

Verse 5:

[D] She left it to smolder, then [A7] headed away,
but on return later, she [D] saw with dismay,
[G] There was the fire burning [D] out of control.
Terry [G] Barton had ac [D] complished much more than [A7] her [D] goal.

Verse 6:

[D] But the Federal investigators [A7] did not believe her.
Indicted, the Federal [D] Court will receive her.
They [G] charged her with damage to [D] federal pro-per-ty, and [G] using a [D] fire to commit a [A7] felo [D] ny.

Instrumental break:

[D] / [D] / [G] [D] [A7] [D]

Verse 7:

[D] Blunder or deliberate, she's [A7] lost her career.

She could go to jail for [D] thirty-two years.
Or [G] in the alternative, [D] she is in line for as [G] much as a [D] one million do-[A7] ol-lar [D] fine.

Verse 8:

[D] In spite of her pledge to be [A7] forest caretaker,
she torched over one hundred [D] thou-sand acres.
She'll [G] long be remembered as [D] that desperado who [G] burned up near [D] half of the state of [A7] Colo [D] rado.
