

September's Song

w. & m. Herman M. Nelson 1969

Instrumental Intro- 1st 2 lines Verse:

Am F
Field and fen are browning. Leaves are blazing copper.
E7 Am
Autumn winds begin to blow.

Verse 1:

Am F
Field and fen are browning. Leaves are blazing copper.
E7 Am
Autumn winds begin to blow.
F
Zephyr skies run pearly. Sun is resting early,
E7 Am
where the western waters flow.
A Dm G7 C
Life moves slowly. It's a time to remember.
A Dm G7 C E7
Last spring's sowing, reaping time in September.

Verse 2:

Am F
Bank the summer plenty. As the sun blooms barren,
E7 Am
life must seek the warmth within.
F
To survive the winter find your niche and enter
E7 Am
as the Northern Days begin
A Dm G7 C
Time for tasting all the fruit of the harvest
A Dm G7 C E7
And reflecting a wee hour till the time of rest.

Instrumental break- 1st 2 lines Verse:

Am F
Field and fen are browning. Leaves are blazing copper.
E7 Am
Autumn winds begin to blow.

Verse 3:

Am F
So we come together to fulfill a promise.
E7 Am
We've a covenant we share.
F
Searching for the morrow, all our joy and sorrow
E7 Am
serves to make us more aware
