Honeypot

Bob Schneider, 2012

D   G

Strum pattern

1 & 2 & 3 & 4 & 1 & 2 & 3 & 4 &

D - D - - D - D G - G - - G - G

Well I D got some flowers coming G in

Got some D friends that all call me G Jim

But D you can call me Honey G pot

'Cause I like you a D lot (yeah G yeah)

I'm the D real thing, oh G baby

I ain't no D boy king, no G baby

I'm a D real man, honey

I don't G need my momma's money

But it D don't hurt. No, it G don't hurt

Got a D heart lost in kindness

A G mind that's mostly mindless

I can D hold you up for air

I won't G let you down I swear

I have D burnt down my past

I'm G lost, I'm built to last

I'm built to D break, but that's OK

Got a G boat down by the lake

We can D go there, we can G go there,

We can D go there when you G want

We can go there D G

Well I D know it's hard to G tell

But I can D save you from this G spell

I can D help you get right G through

Stick a D round like super G glue

Dig them D ghosts up from the grave

Throw them G bones into the waves

Oh baby, D you don't have to worry

I'm built for G comfort, not for hurry

Got a D heart lost in kindness

A G mind that's mostly mindless

I can D hold you up for air

I won't G let you down I swear

I have D burnt down my past

I'm G lost, I'm built to last

I'm built to D break, but that's okay

I got a G place down by the lake

We can D go there, when G ever you want,

We can D go there G

Outro (4X):

 G Everybody sing

 D La, la, la-la

La- G la, la, la-la

La- D la, la, la-la, la G